Launched in 2006 by London based designers, Keith Stephenson and Mark Hampshire, Mini Moderns is an interiors brand specialising in applied pattern across a range of products including wallpapers, fabrics, cushions, rugs and ceramics. The initial collection was snapped up by Heal's and the brand continues to go from strength to strength, selling online and via selected stockists around the world.

Their design influences range from mid-century British textiles to vintage toys, from literature to childhood memories. Travel also influences their work - and much of their inspiration comes from holidays and field trips, both at home and abroad.

ROUNDEL GREY & TEAL

Charnwood stoves employ the latest clean-burn technology. This season sees the launch of a new range of fireplace surrounds and wall cladding in luxurious vitreous enamel. 'Vlaze' panels, the material used for London Underground's signage, are a new take on Victorian tiles, and the range includes an exclusive new collaboration with Transport for London and Michelle Mason. Shown here, from left: 'Vlaze' wall-mounted heat shield, £720; 'Tor Pico' in black, £2,520; 'Island II' in almond, £1,906; and 'Vlaze' wall-mounted heat shield, £540.
